

-CONFIDENTIAL-

(DDR) Drug Development and Regulation

www.ddrmedic.com

Job offer

Drug Development and Regulation (DDR) is a company providing strategic and operational, independent and global consulting services focused on Drug and Medical Devices Development and Regulation.

DDR offers STRATEGIC and FULL OPERATIONAL SERVICES in both EU and US
DDR is located in Barcelona and London

DDR has currently open positions for Regulatory Managers. In particular, experience on dealing with procedures at the FDA will be much appreciated.

Regulatory Manager

Experience in drug and/or medical devices development and international regulatory processes.

The responsibilities will be:

- Managing, supervising and executing projects.
- Interacting with clients.
- Conducting strategic reports (i.e. gap analysis, road maps).
- Provide weekly verbal detailed reports on the evolution of projects.
- Contribute to internal brainstorming sessions regarding ongoing projects.
- Identify problems and propose solutions for ongoing projects.

-CONFIDENTIAL-

(DDR) Drug Development and Regulation

www.ddrmedic.com

- Represent DDR at scientific, regulatory conferences and scientific boards.

It is requested:

- BS/MS degree in human health related discipline.
- Proved experience in an international development-regulatory environment.
- Understanding preclinical and/or clinical drug development.
- Previous experience in regulatory procedures at the EMA and/or FDA is a plus.
- Work effectively and productively.
- Strong sense of integrity and confidentiality.
- Written and verbal communication skills in English.
- Able to get fully integrated in a dynamic, up to dated and intellectually challenging team.

What we offer:

- Full time contract and permanent position.
- Salary depending on experience.
- Other potential advantages to be discussed.
- Be part of an international and highly competitive team, mainly focused on innovative projects of biotechnology companies, where >70% of them are from international locations.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae and a motivation letter to: info@ddrmedic.com Please, the email subject should include "Job offer application".